From Father Pieter

Greetings! Happy Easter! Today we consider the journey of faith through Jesus' resurrection appearance to two disciples on the road to Emmaus. At first, the disciples walked sad and dejected: they had hoped that Jesus would conquer victoriously, but He died on a cross. But then, despite their dejection, Jesus comes to them and reveals Himself to them, "in the breaking of the bread." In the Mass today, in the "breaking of the bread" that is Christ's Body in the Eucharist, open your heart to Jesus and receive His love and mercy.

What's Happening at St. Joseph

Diocesan Services Appeal (DSA)—by our unofficial count, I think we have met our goal! Thank you! Fifty percent of all further gifts come directly to our parish. Thank you, always, for your generous support of God's work at our parish.

Spring Fling: Thank you to everyone who helped make our fun fundraiser last night a great success! Funds will help to cover the cost to replace the Holy Family Center kitchen appliances.

Norman Stoll, husband of Debbie Stoll, passed away last week on April 8, 2026. A memorial gathering will be on Friday, April 24 at 1 pm and funeral at 2 pm at St. John the Baptist in Ypsilanti. Please pray for him!

Trail Life: Pray for the boys and their dads who have a camp out next weekend! And please pray for their sisters and moms, and for me! I will pray for you!
